Nancy Wynne Talks of the Entertaining in Southampton and Newport—Miss Norris to Marry Lieutenant Alegra on September 4 in Narragansett Pier

AS THERE is literally "nothing doing" socially near home these days, nearly everyone being away, we naturally turn for news to the resorts where something is doing most of the time. Of course on Saturday of this week there will be the dog show at Newport, but we have long been planning for that, and most of those who are going to attend it are already on their way.

THAT will be an unusual dance which Mr. and Mrs. William Wilcock have planned for tomorrow night at their Southampton home, in honor of Mr. and Mrs. William C. Robinson and Mrs. Henry Darlington, Jr. They have asked the guests to wear sailor, navy or yachting costumes. I think the effect will be very fetching. The old-fashioned sailor blouse and skirt are becoming to slender figures, but I hate to think what a plump person will look like. However, the plump care not for the sailor blouse, they may choose for the evening frock. Of course it's easy for the men, either men's sailor suits or navy uniforms.

SOUTHAMPTON is decidedly the place this summer. Newport is gay and fashionable, and so are the Maine harbors, but Southampton has the greatest vogue this summer, without a doubt.

And there are not many Philadelphians visiting the Francis Burrill Hoffmanns at different times during the summer. Both Francis and his wife, who are the little nephew for a few days on their way to Narragansett Pier. And recently Mr. and Mrs. Sullivan have been Mrs. Hoffmann's guests. I think it is a little more than a year ago, married Mr. and Mrs. Hoffmann's son.

THE date for Dorothy Norris's wedding has been set, I hear. It will take place September 4, and the "invitations" will be out very soon. I have heard rumors of who will be bridesmaids, but I am not at liberty to tell their names as yet. One thing is certain, it will be a most unusual affair and extremely artistic.

I HEAR that Adelaide Sedgwick, of New York, is to marry Jack Munroe on the 20th of next month and that the wedding will take place at the home of her aunt, Mrs. J. Rich Steer, in Portchester, N. Y. Adelaide will make a beautiful bride, as any of us who saw her here in her debutante year know. In fact, both of the Sedgwick girls are turning lovely. Adeline, you remember, married James Blackstone Taylor about two years ago. Adelaide went abroad for a time to the Eng. and the armistice. The Sedgwicks lived in Paris for a number of years and went to England during the early part of the war. Later they went to New York, where both girls made their debut. They came on here to visit and attended several of the big balls, making a decided impression in the City of Brotherly Love. They are both dark and graceful and have a great deal of charm.

I HEAR there is to be a large concert and ball in Newport next week, as a matter of fact, on Thursday, to the Navy Relief Association. The ball is to be given at the training station. Mrs. Edmund S. R. Brandt, wife of Commandant Brandt, U. S. N., is going to sing, and from all I have heard of her singing in Newport, she has a treat in store. She has a wonderful voice, which is highly cultivated and very beautiful. The training station is the object of her affection. Mrs. Brandt is the daughter of Commander and Mrs. Gauss, daughter of Commander and Mrs. Gauss, will appear in several of the dances.

After the concert there will be supper at small tables and general dancing. Most of the girls in Newport will serve as aides and waitresses for the affair. Mrs. Alexander Hamilton Rice, formerly Mrs. George Widener, of this city, is one of the patronesses, and Mrs. John B. Drexel and Mrs. Howard Spencer Graham are among the New Yorkers and Philadelphians who are interested.

I TOLD you the other day that you never could tell how things might change when women get the vote, and I've already heard of one young thing who has started her counting early, even before Tennessee ratified. She is sixteen, the object of her affection is a box of candy the other day. But she will have some of the 1910 shyness and not quite as well advanced in the "new woman" form of counting as one would think, for she did not have the nerve to disclose her card and Bessie very unkindly remarked on receipt of the box, "Well, what noise fish do you think sent that to me?"

NANCY WYNNE.
